FOR UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT USE ONLY

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Employment

NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS, Room 610, 1825 K Street, N. W.
Personnel record information furnished by [REDACTED]

The personnel records show that Justine "Tina" Clapp Lower was born November 27, 1929 at Seattle, Washington. Personnel records reflect that she has been employed as a Program Associate from October, 1966, to the Present. Her Social Security Number is shown as 571-38-5911, and her marital status is shown as: Not Married.

All other record information found consistent with that in the case papers.

[REDACTED]

This is a small office, and under the present setup Mrs. Lower works [REDACTED] she came to this firm October 1, 1966. She accepts responsibility very well, and she is the kind of person who initiates and follows through programs of action very well. She is employed here as a Program Associate, and most of the time is working on her own projects [REDACTED] I have never seen any reason to question her honesty or integrity. Her physical health seems normal to me, and she has not taken any excessive amount of sick leave. In my experience with her, she has always seemed a stable individual. Our relationship has been primarily at the office, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] in her present capacity, she is called on to attend dinner meetings, and some weekend office activities. I think that some of these activities that she is called on at present to participate in outside of office hours, may form her reason for wanting to leave this office. She has two sons, and therefore there is a conflict between the hours that she must spend on her duties, and the time that she would like to spend with them.

I have no knowledge whatever regarding her financial situation, but would assume from my personal knowledge of her that she is a sound financial manager.

I have only ever heard her mentioned the PTA, and Boy Scouts of America, in terms of outside activities. I know that she is also interested in getting women into community activities, and was quite active in this area when she was living in Anaheim, California.

I actually know of no organizations or groups that she belongs to at the moment.

I have never seen or heard anything that would lead me to think that she was anything but loyal to the United States. I recommend her for a position of trust involving the National Security.

[REDACTED]

I have known Tina Lower [REDACTED] here at the National Institute [REDACTED] she was a Program Officer in the Special Projects Branch of the Peace Corps [REDACTED] At that time she was employed in some Liaison Section between the Peace Corps and Capitol Hill, but I don't recall at present what the actual nature of this assignment was, [REDACTED]

I consider Tina Lower as an honest woman of integrity, and considerable intelligence. She handles her assignments here at the National Institute with dispatch and initiative. I have no reason to think that there is anything wrong with her morals, or that she is anything but a social drinker. I don't know what her marital status is at present, but know that she has two sons. I have not known her socially at any time, nor have I ever been aware of where she was living in the area. Her physical health and emotional stability seem to be fine.

I have no reason to question her loyalty to the United States, and I recommend her for a position of trust with the Federal Government.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Mrs. Tina Lower [REDACTED] at the U. S. Department of Labor [REDACTED] know that she apparently did a fine job there; as she ended up as the Deputy Director of the Advisory Council for University Summer Education Programs. When she left the Labor Department [REDACTED] the Peace Corps [REDACTED] During this period she was employed as a Program Officer in the Office of Public Affairs [REDACTED] she left the Peace Corps to come to the National Institute of Public Affairs [REDACTED] She is employed here at the National Institute of Public Affairs as a Program Associate, and I consider her a very dependable, reliable, member of the organization. I don't know any organizations or groups that she belongs to at present, nor am I aware of any special interests that she may have outside the office. I am quite sure that she is not married at the present, but has two children, [REDACTED]

I have no question regarding her honesty or integrity or moral character. I have never seen any reason to think that she was an excessive drinker, or had ever been involved with drugs. She seems to be in good physical health, and is an emotionally stable woman. She has no conflicts here with anyone in the office, and seems to get along very well.

I am quite sure there are no problems regarding her loyalty to the United States, and I recommend her for a position of trust involving the National Security.

UNITED STATES AGENCY FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, Peace Corps, Records and Reports Section, Division of Personnel, Room 317, 306 Connecticut Avenue, N. W. Personnel record information furnished by [REDACTED]

Personnel record information (SF 7), shows that Mrs. Justine C. Lower, was born November 27, 1929 and has a Social Security Number, 571-38-5011.

November 1, 1955. Excepted Appointment (ITE 30 months); as Program Officer, FSR-5 at $11,375 per annum at the Public Information Office, Peace Corps, Washington, D. C.

July 10, 1966. Reassignment as Peace Corps Liaison Officer for Public Affairs, Division of Recruitment.

October 7, 1966. Resignation from Division of Institutional Relations, "To accept a position in a private organization."

INVESTIGATOR'S NOTE: Investigation at Records and Reports Section, Peace Corps, revealed that the Subject's Official Personnel Folder had been sent to the Federal Records Center on January 26, 1967. Personnel files contain only the above service record card information.

U.S. AGENCY FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, Peace Corps, Security Office, Room 503, 1101 15th Street, N. W. Security record information furnished by [REDACTED]

Security records reflect that Mrs. Justine H. Clapp Lower, was born November 27, 1929, and occupied a non-Sensitive position at the U. S.

Department of Labor from September 1, 1964 to October 1, 1965.

October 1, 1965. Favorable loyalty determination based on IAC by the U. S. Civil Service Commission dated December 30, 1964.

January 11, 1966. Favorable determination based on U. S. Civil Service Commission Full Field Case 5.22.66.3065 completed January 4, 1966.

All other record information found consistent with that in case papers.

[REDACTED]

I first met Mrs. Tina Lower when she came to the Office of Program Coordination at the Peace Corps sometime late in 1965, or early 1966. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] She was employed as a Program Assistant. She was living in Virginia at that time, and was either widowed or divorced. As far as organizations that she belongs to at present, I know only the ones that she mentioned to me at that time. The Stanford Alumnae Association is the only one that I can remember by name, although I am sure that there were several other public administration groups that she belonged to in Washington. [REDACTED] Mrs. Lower [REDACTED] went from the Office of Planning to the Institutional Relations Branch of the Peace Corps sometime early in 1966, perhaps as late as late spring. She was a very satisfactory employee, who takes initiative, and seemed to have the authority for getting things done. She is a gregarious woman, who I found to be quite diligent. She is aggressive in a pleasant sense, and is valuable to a Public Relations Office in that she make and maintains contacts throughout an area. She was in the position during the time that I know her at Peace Corps of more or less having to make a job for herself, and she seemed to show very good understanding of the particular function of the office to which she was attached, and her own position within it. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I know that she is involved in arranging conferences and getting groups of people together at the National Institute for Public Affairs. I think that she would be very good at this kind of work. I am not aware of any physical problems that Mrs. Lower has ever had, and she is an emotionally stable woman. I would only say that she seems to work better for men than for women. I think that Tina is perhaps too business-like for most women employees. I consider this a point definitely in her favor, however. I have never had any reason to think there was anything wrong with her personal behavior, in terms of drinking, or morals in general.

I never had any doubt regarding Mrs. Lower's loyalty to the United States, and I recommend her for a position of trust with the Federal Government.

[REDACTED]

I worked with Mrs. Tina Lower [REDACTED] through [REDACTED] when she was a member of the Peace Corps Staff. As nearly as I can recall, her position was Special Assistant to the Director in the Branch of Institutional Relations. [REDACTED] the Branch of Institutional Relations [REDACTED] Tina did, and I haven't seen her since. I think that she had very, very few activities outside the office, and most of her time was taken up by working in the office. I know that she had two children, and think that she was divorced, and therefore had little time for any organizations groups or memberships.

In working with Mrs. Lower, I considered her a fair, honest, reliable woman, and she was the kind of person who could be counted on to keep the hours of the job, and to be available for overtime, as well. I know nothing whatever that would lead me to think that there was anything in her habits or morals that was questionable.

I think that her physical health was fine, and I don't recall her ever taking any sick leave during the period that I knew her. I never noticed any particular emotional problems with Mrs. Lower, and consider her stable.

I am sure that Mrs. Lower is definitely loyal to the United States. I know nothing whatever that would lead me to think that she is not a suitable person to occupy a position of trust involving our National Security.

[REDACTED]

Mrs. Tina Lower is an honest woman of integrity. She is the most brilliant capable, efficient woman I have ever known in the Government. [REDACTED] worked [REDACTED] at the Peace Corps for approximately [REDACTED]. She came directly to the Peace Corps from the Labor Department, and is now employed by the National Institute of Public Affairs. I have had no working contact with her since [REDACTED] but have known her [REDACTED] and we are [REDACTED] friends [REDACTED].

She actually initiated the Institutional Relations Branch, program of Liaison between the Peace Corps and college campuses. She was a Special Assistant to the Director of the Institutional Relations Branch, but she really ran the Branch as far as I was concerned.

Her personal behavior is beyond reproach in all respects as far as I am concerned.

Her loyalty to the United States is the greatest, and I recommend her for a position of trust with the Federal Government.

I consider her the best "model" that I could imagine for my own life and career.

[REDACTED]

I first met Mrs. Tina Lower [REDACTED] I went to the Peace Corps. She worked [REDACTED] beginning early in 1966. [REDACTED] She was one of the workers [REDACTED] whom I knew professionally. [REDACTED] I had no contact with her outside the office.

I am quite sure that Mrs. Lower belonged to professional organizations, but can recall no specific names. I really didn't know her that well, and don't recall any of her activities outside the office. I have really had no contact with her since [REDACTED] the Peace Corps. [REDACTED] and as nearly as I can recall, she left [REDACTED] I knew that she is now employed at the National Institute of Public Affairs, [REDACTED]

As a Federal employee, I consider Mrs. Lower highly dedicated, and a very sensible woman. I know of no reason why she would not be considered a dependable employee, and I consider her first-rate, and reliable in all respects. I have no reason to question her honesty or integrity. On the opportunities that I had to observe her on social occasions, she always conducted herself with great decorum, and seemed to be a respectable person in all respects. She seemed to be in good health, and I don't recall her ever taking any sick leave. She got along very well with the other people in the office, and always seemed emotionally stable to me.

I have no reason to doubt or question her loyalty to the United States. I recommend her for a position involving the National Security.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

(Interviewed by telephone at the request of the witness.)

Record information does not reflect the exact date when Mrs. Justine Lower moved into 1531 31st Street, N. W.; Washington, D. C. The files contain a lease which went into effect July 1, 1967.

The files reflect that Mrs. Justine Lower is currently a resident at 1531 31st Street, N. W., and no derogatory information is on file.

[REDACTED]

I first met Mrs. Tina Lower [REDACTED] moved into this apartment [REDACTED] Mrs. Lower lives [REDACTED] with her two sons. I have no idea where she is employed. She has never discussed any organizations or groups that she may belong to. I know nothing about her activities, or any hobbies that she may have. She is renting [REDACTED]. She has been a very pleasant neighbor and has [REDACTED]

I don't believe that any of the tenants in this building have had any trouble with Mrs. Lower, and she seems to get along very well with all the neighbors.

As far as I know, her health is OK, and I have never had any reason to question her emotional stability. I don't know what Mrs. Lower's marital status is, but know only that she lives alone with her two sons on the first floor.

I have never heard or seen anything that would lead me to think that she was not a loyal American citizen. From my limited knowledge of her, I believe that she would be OK in a position of trust involving the National Security.

[REDACTED]

I first met Mrs. Tina Lower [REDACTED] of 1531 31st Street, N. W. Mrs. Lower lives [REDACTED] with two sons, and I am quite sure that she has a maid; although I am not sure whether the maid lives there full-time. I don't know where Mrs. Lower is employed, and I don't know any organizations or groups that she may belong to.

She seems to be a very personable woman, and her two boys are very charming. I don't know Mrs. Lower's marital status. I don't know any interests that she may have. I have never seen anything to indicate to me that she is an excessive drinker, or has ever been involved with drugs, or is anything but a fine moral woman.

She doesn't seem the kind of woman who would be disloyal to the United States, and I have no reason at all to question her loyalty.

She impresses me very favorably as a suitable person to occupy a position of trust with the Federal Government.

[REDACTED]

I met Mrs. Justine Lower [REDACTED] when I moved [REDACTED] at 1531 31st Street N. W. [REDACTED] Mrs. Lower lives [REDACTED] She has a maid, but I am not sure whether she lived there on a full-time basis or not. I don't know anything about Mrs. Lower's employment. I have no idea what her activities may be, as she has never discussed this with me. I have never seen anything that would lead me to think that she was a heavy drinker or that she was not a morally upright woman.

I don't believe that she has any problems concerning her physical health, and she seems to be emotionally stable. Judging from her two boys, she must be a fabulous mother, as they are about the best-behaved children I have ever seen. I don't know exactly when Mrs. Lower moved into the apartment but I have heard that it was [REDACTED]

I have no reason whatever to doubt her loyalty to the United States, and as far as I know, she seems to be a suitable person to occupy a position of trust with the federal government.

[REDACTED]

ROUTH ROBBINS REAL ESTATE CORPORATION, Rental Office, 400 North Washington Street, ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. Residence record information furnished by [REDACTED]

Residence records reflect that Mrs. Justine Lower rented No. 828 South Dinwiddie Street in Arlington, Virginia, from October 1, 1963 to August 15, 1967.

[REDACTED]

Mrs. Lower signed a lease with the owner of 828 South Dinwiddie Street in Arlington [REDACTED]

My relationship with Mrs. Lower [REDACTED] has been undesirable. [REDACTED] She seemed to us very demanding in her requests [REDACTED]

We have never received any complaints from the neighbors concerning Mrs. Lower, and I have no idea what any of her activities may have been in the neighborhood.

Information has been deleted since it would disclose the identity of the confidential source. [Section 552a (k) (5), Public Law 93-579]

[REDACTED]

Mrs. Lower moved from this neighborhood about two months ago. She lived [REDACTED] for about two years, as nearly as I can remember. She was an acceptable neighbor to us in every way.

[REDACTED] She seemed to be a very nice woman, [REDACTED] she worked during the daytime. I never knew where she worked, and really knew nothing about her activities outside the neighborhood. As nearly as I could tell she was in good health, and was emotionally stable. She never had any wild parties, so that I don't believe she was a heavy drinker, and I never saw anything wrong with her morals.

I really don't know anything about her loyalty to the United States, but I have never seen anything that would reflect adversely on her loyalty. In my judgment she is a suitable person to occupy a position of trust in the Federal Government.

[REDACTED]

I met Mrs. Tina Lower [REDACTED] into this neighborhood. She lived at 828 South Dinwiddie Street with her two sons, who are teen-agers. I think that I have heard that she had been living here for four to six years, but I don't have personal knowledge of this. I know that she was working at the Peace Corps at one time, and believe that at present she is working for a Government Agency in a similar service position. I don't know any groups or organizations to which she has belonged at any time. Mrs. Tina Lower left in August, 1967, and I don't know where she is at present. Her physical health seemed to be about average, and she seemed to be a stable person. I never saw any evidence of drinking, or that there was anything wrong with her morals.

I never saw or heard anything that would lead me to think she was not a loyal American citizen. In general, she seemed to be a very devoted kind of woman, and suitable to occupy a position of trust with the Federal Government.

[REDACTED]

Tina Lower left this neighborhood about two months ago, and she is currently living in Georgetown. I don't know exactly where she lives at the present; [REDACTED] For most of the time that she was living here, she lived in Apartment No. 828 South Dinwiddie, [REDACTED]

She was employed the whole time that we knew her, but she never discussed her employment ~~with anyone~~. I don't know anything about any organizations or groups that she may belong to. I never at any time saw her do anything that would lead me to think that she was a person who uses alcohol to excess, or that she was not moral. She had very little contact with the neighbors here, as she seemed to work long hours, and we seldom got to see or talk to her.

I know nothing against her loyalty to the United States, but I simply don't feel that I am qualified to make any statement regarding her suitability for a position of trust with the Federal Government.

residence shown as 921 Minerva Place, Anaheim, California, with no other identifying data shown.

She was employed as a substitute teacher only with her rate of pay shown as $22 per day. The records reflect that during the month of May of 1957, she earned $77; during June of 1957, $291; during November 1957, $88; during December 1957, $110; during January 1958, $88; during February 1958, $318; during March of 1958, $252; during April of 1958, $115 and an additional figure of $132; during May of 1958, $176; during June of 1958, $498; during December 1958, $132; and during January of 1959, $22.

Due to the type of records maintained and substitute teaching wherein she would have been employed in various schools, there is no way of identifying supervisors or individuals who may have had knowledge of her activities.

I formerly resided on [redacted] Minerva Place in Anaheim, California, and Tina Lower resided [redacted] on Minerva Place. I moved there in [redacted] and she, her husband, Richard, and their two sons moved into their home perhaps [redacted] in September of 1956. We were neighbors until she moved away in September of 1960. During her residence, I was a close neighbor and got to know her quite well; however, did not work with her in many of the activities in which she was involved.

She moved to the Laguna Beach, California, area when she completed a project of working on a women's convention during 1960. As a result of her intense activities and participation in the convention, she had little time left for her husband and, as a result, [redacted] they separated and later were divorced. At the time they separated or shortly thereafter, she moved away because she did not want to remain in the same neighborhood with the people who had known her and her husband on a personal basis. As I recall, she remained in Laguna Beach, California, until she left for Washington, D. C., in the middle of 1961.

Tina was a person who was a graduate of the Coro Foundation which is dedicated to public service and affairs and is not the type of organization that is politically oriented. As a result of the training she received, Tina spent part of her time working in a labor union, then in association with civic government, and then her last project was to get the women of the community interested in the affairs of government and the things that go on about them.

She firmly believed that women should not be household drudges but should get out and do other things. As a result, during 1960, she was instrumental in setting up a convention for the women of Anaheim so that the new arrivals could be integrated into the activities of the old-time residents. She is an extremely intelligent person and becomes very dedicated to any project in which she is involved. She is a capable manager and has the personality and ability to get other people involved in her projects and get them to do many of the things that are required. She is able to delegate authority and is quite aggressive in getting things done.

As I indicated, her separation and divorce were the result of her extreme dedication to these outside activities, and I can certainly state that her relationship with her husband and her personal conduct were morally above reproach. They are both fine people, and there is nothing to the discredit to either of them.

Tina had a third child born in approximately February of 1961 while she was residing in Laguna Beach. The last I heard, Mr. Lower had the three children with him; however, I have not kept in touch and this is only by rumor.

Tina was an exceptionally fine mother despite all her activities and was intensely interested in her children. She was a faddist, and spent a considerable amount of her time working with and utilizing health foods to ensure the proper vitamins were provided her children. She is honest, responsible, and definitely of good integrity. She is a physically healthy person and very emotionally stable. I cannot think of anyone who would be a finer member of the staff for the Peace Corps. She may take a social drink; however, I cannot recall her ever using alcoholic beverages to excess.

Her loyalty to the United States is absolutely without question, and I would recommend her for a position involving our country's security. She would never reveal confidences that are entrusted to her. Other than knowing that she is a graduate of the Stanford University and the Core Foundation, I cannot recall any other organization that she may have been affiliated with other than the Association for University Women.

I moved here in [redacted] and approximately [redacted] Justine or Tina Lower, her husband, Richard, and her two small sons moved into their home [redacted] at 921 Minerva Place. We were neighbors and close friends until the fall of 1960 when she was separated from her husband and later divorced and moved to Laguna Beach, California, in a home that she rented there. She resided in the Beach area for several months and, [redacted]

[redacted] I cannot recall her exact address. If I recall correctly, she moved to Washington, D. C., from Laguna Beach.

Tina's divorce from her husband was certainly no reflection on her personal character or reputation. It was a situation of incompatibility primarily due to Tina having so many outside activities which created a conflict with her husband. Her personal reputation was completely acceptable. After moving to Laguna Beach, California, she had her third child which would have been perhaps five or six months after her separation from her husband.

As I indicated, her personal reputation is above reproach, and she is a very reliable and responsible person. She is conscientious and works very hard at everything that she does. Her personal habits are excellent, and she does take a social drink but not on an excessive or habitual basis. She takes care of her obligations and is impeccable in every way.

She is able to get along with others; however, she does become rather opinionated at times since she has strong opinions on many things.

During her residence here, she worked as a substitute school teacher in the Anaheim School District; however, she was involved in many other things. During her last period of residence, she was the principal organizer for a convention known as the Keys to the City wherein she attempted to get the women of the community out to become acquainted with their community and with each other. She was quite successful in this and displayed a lot of capability as a manager. Her other activities included working with the local symphony, and I know that she was associated with the University Women. She was also a graduate of the Stanford University.

She is definitely a person loyal to the United States, and I recommend her for a position involving our country's security. I would trust her with confidences. She belonged to one of the major political parties; however, I cannot think of any other organization that she may have belonged to other than those that I described.

[redacted]
I knew Tina Lower from approximately [redacted] to sometime [redacted]. She and her husband, Richard, moved into their new home [redacted] at 921 Minerva Place [redacted]. At that time, they had two boys; however, they later had a third child born while Tina was living in Laguna Beach, California. We were very close and had a lot of social contact, and [redacted]. She moved to Laguna Beach during the fall of 1962 when she was separated and later divorced from her husband. She rented a home there, [redacted]. I cannot recall the address.

Tina had relatives in the San Diego, California, area when she visited; however, I cannot recall whether she spent any time there before moving to Washington, D. C., or whether she moved directly from Laguna Beach to Washington. It does seem to me, however, that after having her child in the first part of 1961 in Laguna Beach, she remained there for three or four months before moving.

Her moral reputation is completely above reproach, and her divorce resulted only from incompatibility primarily resulting from Tina's intense dedication to any project in which she is engaged which turned out to be detrimental to her relationship with her husband. She is honest, reliable, and completely trustworthy. Her personal habits, appearance, and personality traits are quite acceptable and, although she takes a social drink, she does not use alcoholic beverages to excess. She is physically healthy and definitely emotionally stable.

Tina is very civic-minded and was instrumental and responsible for a volunteer project publicizing the City of Anaheim. She worked on a convention to get the women of the city together in order to integrate the new arrivals with the old residents. She is a competent organizer, being very intelligent and energetic. As a result, the convention was a success, and it was entirely attributable to her. She was able to utilize the services of others to the maximum and is definitely a capable manager.

In addition to these volunteer activities, she also worked as a part-time school teacher here in the Anaheim School District. She is a graduate of the Stanford University; however, I cannot recall anything else about her background.

I have absolutely no reason to question her loyalty to the United States, and I recommend her for a position involving our country's security. I would trust her with confidences. She belonged to one of the major political parties and was a member of the American Association of University Women.

I moved here [redacted] and met Justine or Tina Lower, her husband, Richard, and their two sons at that time. They resided [redacted] and had moved into their home at 921 Minerva Place perhaps [redacted]. We were friends and neighbors until she moved to the South Laguna Beach area in the fall of 1960. She resided in South Laguna for a number of months and then moved to Washington, D. C. I visited her home in South Laguna; however, I am not certain of the address.

Tina had separated from her husband and at that time moved to Laguna to be away from the people with whom she had been closely associated. She had a new baby born while in Laguna Beach perhaps four or five months after her separation from her husband. The divorce was strictly an incompatibility situation, and there was nothing in her moral conduct that created any problem.

Her moral behavior is excellent, and she is definitely a good mother and person. Her personal habits, behavior, and conduct are always completely above reproach. She is honest and definitely responsible. She is a physically healthy person and is exceptionally stable and able to work long, hard hours and under difficult pressure situations.

Tina is very much of an organizer and is able to get things done through delegation of work to others. She is civic-minded and spent a lot of time on a project promoting the City of Anaheim. In addition to this, she was a substitute school teacher in the Anaheim School District.

She was able to get along very well with those that she worked with and, although she is very positive in her thoughts, this did not create too many conflicts with her associates.

I know that she went to work in Washington, D. C., for a company known as the Ford & Associates. Her husband, I believe, is currently located in the state of Texas.

She is definitely a person who is loyal to the United States, and I recommend her without hesitation for a position involving the security of the United States. I would trust her with confidences. I know that she is a graduate of the Stanford University, a member of the American Association of University Women, and a member of a major political party.

She is quite competent and definitely an intelligent person. She is a graduate of the Stanford University and spent much of her time in civic projects. She is extremely energetic and always became very dedicated to the things in which she was involved. She was the instigator of a convention for the City of Anaheim and did a superb job of running the convention and getting the women of the community together. She was very well liked as a result of her activities, and I know of no one who will speak a bad word about her.

Tina did not want to associate with her former friends, and this was the reason she moved to South Laguna when she separated from her husband. She remained by herself and did not make friends in Laguna Beach.

She resumed her friendship with her former Anaheim friends. I do not know, however, of anyone in Laguna Beach who would know her.

I feel that she is definitely a person who is loyal to the United States and will recommend her without hesitation for a responsible position and one which affects the security of our country. [REDACTED]
I first met Tina Lower in Anaheim, California, in perhaps [REDACTED]. It was shortly after she, her husband, Richard, and her two children moved to the Anaheim, California, area. I met her [REDACTED] and we became friends and frequently had social contact with her at her home on Minerva Place in Anaheim, California. I also assisted her in 1960 on a project known as Keys to the City which was a civic project to get the women of the community together.

During the latter part of 1960, she separated from her husband, and she and her children moved to a rented home [REDACTED] in South Laguna Beach, California. She remained there with her children from the fall of 1960 until the school semester was over in approximately June of 1961. I believe she then spent the summer with her sister or her mother in the San Diego, California, area before moving to Washington, D. C.

Tina had her third child born to her while here in Laguna Beach, California, approximately five or six months after she separated from her husband.

I do not feel that Tina's divorce is in any way a reflection upon her personal moral or personal reputation. It was a situation involving incompatibility, and both her and her husband's conduct were of an impeccable nature. She has high standards, is a good mother, and does not have any bad habits of which I am aware. She takes a social drink but never to excess. She is a physically healthy and very emotionally stable person.

She is quite competent and definitely an intelligent person. She is a graduate of the Stanford University and spent much of her time in civic projects. She is extremely energetic and always became very dedicated to the things in which she was involved. She was the instigator of a convention for the City of Anaheim and did a superb job of running the convention and getting the women of the community together. She was very well liked as a result of her activities, and I know of no one who will speak a bad word about her.

Tina did not want to associate with her former friends, and this was the reason she moved to South Laguna when she separated from her husband. She remained by herself and did not make friends in Laguna Beach. [REDACTED] she resumed her friendship with her former Anaheim friends. I do not know, however, of anyone [REDACTED] in Laguna Beach who would know her [REDACTED]

I feel that she is definitely a person who is loyal to the United States and will recommend her without hesitation for a responsible position and one which affects the security of our country. I would trust her with confidences. Other than civic organizations and the Association of University Women, I am not familiar with any other specific organization with which she may have been affiliated.

[REDACTED]

I first met Justine or Tina Lower and her husband and two children in Anaheim, California, in perhaps [REDACTED]. We became friends and frequently had social contact with each other. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] in late 1960, Tina separated from her husband and moved to a rented house in South Laguna Beach, California, [REDACTED]. She remained [REDACTED] for perhaps a year or a little less and then in the middle of 1961, she moved to Washington, D. C. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] In addition, she had her third child born while residing there.

I found Tina to be a very fine person and one who is very community and civic-minded. She was intelligent and a competent person. Her morals were completely above reproach, and I do not feel her divorce was any reflection on her in any manner. She was honest and of excellent integrity. She seemed to be physically healthy and emotionally stable. I do not question her loyalty to the United States, and I recommend her for a position involving our country's security. I believe she would keep confidences that are entrusted to her. I have no knowledge of any organization that she may belong to other than those of a civic nature.

[REDACTED]

During the years of 1960 and 1961, I was [REDACTED] here in Laguna Beach, California, [REDACTED] the home located at 31944 Virginia Way in South Laguna Beach, California. The home was rented to various families and, although I can provide you with the name of the owner, I cannot provide you with the names of the various tenants. I do not recall anyone by the name of Justine Lower residing there.

[REDACTED]

I have resided here [REDACTED] and am familiar with the house [REDACTED] at 31944 Virginia Way. I recall a mother and children residing there perhaps in 1960 or 1961; however, I have no personal knowledge of the family since several families have rented the home, and I am not personally acquainted with anyone by the name of Justin Lower.

[REDACTED]

I have resided here since [REDACTED] 31944 Virginia Way and, although I know that during the years 1960 and 1961, the house was rented and that a lady with children resided there for perhaps less than one year, I do not know the name, and I am not familiar with anyone by the name of Justine Lower. I can provide no specific information pertaining to the family I refer to; however, other than the usual problem with children, I cannot think of anything that would cause me to question the lady's personal reputation in any way.

INVESTIGATOR'S NOTE: Investigation in the vicinity of 31944 Virginia Way disclosed that this area is primarily one consisting of transients or summer visitors. Of four homes in the immediate vicinity, none of the occupants had resided in the area in 1960 or 1961 or had any knowledge of the subject.

CSC FORM 366

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

CORO FOUNDATION, 406 Sutter Street. Information furnished by [REDACTED]

We moved this office and I am unable to locate complete records on Justine Hubbel Lower. I do find among my files that she attended our Internship Training Program as one of the selectees of the CORO Foundation from October 1, 1951 through June 27, 1952. Her maiden name was Justine H. Clapp. She married Richard D. Lower, born November 27, 1929 at Seattle, Washington. I have no additional personal information on her.

The CORO Foundation selects 12 people annually out of hundreds of applicants for a post graduate training program internship in Public Affairs. This is a nonaccredited program except for arrangements such as with Golden Gate University where it does count toward a Master's or upper graduate work.

We had selected Justine Clapp Lower as one of our interns. She had previously attended Stanford University. She then completed her internship with the CORO Foundation during the period approximately October 1, 1951 to June 1952. Subsequent to that she worked on our staff for six months to one year. I am unable to locate any records of her work on our staff but I do have personal knowledge of it.

Part of her work was salaried and a lot of it was on a volunteer basis. She had married and her time became limited as she was raising a family. I feel almost certain that she worked with us for at least three or four summer months following June 1952 and then on a voluntary basis thereafter.

She also helped us out from time to time and worked off and on from 1957 when we started our Los Angeles Office to 1961 when she left for Washington, D. C. She occasionally came into San Francisco and worked with us on short term projects. However, from the fall of 1952 she was mainly a homemaker rather than a steady employee of CORO Foundation.

Her work with the CORO Foundation was primarily field work. This Foundation assigns the interns to government, business firms, labor, political campaigns and things of that sort. Justine's file shows

That she was assigned to City Planning, to the City Planning Office, to the Recreation and Parks Department, to the Department of Public Works. She was also assigned to the old San Francisco Post, to the Communications Workers of America, a Seattle Union. She worked for short periods of time in each of these offices. In addition to this, she completed a study on the Feasibility of Incorporation of Unincorporated Areas of Contra Costa County primarily the community of Lafayette, California. Due to the changes in the various sections she worked, I doubt that anyone would recall her personally as the people she worked with have either died or retired for the most part.

She was married at the time that she was our intern as Dick was attending Law School, they probably were helped financially by both families.

In my files, I find that Justine showed she had worked for three summers at Yosemite National Park during the summer months as a hostess in the dining room. She had also attended Stanford and San Diego State Colleges where she worked as a checker in the cafeteria. She was affiliated with a sorority and an honorary society.

I do not recall the exact dates that Justine and Dick left San Francisco but I do know that they went to Bakersfield, California for up to a year and then came back to this city in September 1953 for Dick to begin internship through our program on October 1, 1953. It is unusual for a husband and wife to go through the program at different times.

Dick did complete his internship during the period October 1, 1953 and approximately June 1954. Justine at that time was an employee of the Communications Workers of America, the Seattle Union and supported them in that way. Dick began to progress quite rapidly after completion of our program. They returned from here to Bakersfield, California where he worked with Standard Oil and then was purchased by Humble Oil. He has done very well and is currently employed in Houston, Texas.

Dick and Justine were divorced about 1961 in the Los Angeles, California area.

Justine was a faithful devoted wife, she was a very outgoing person who liked to stay busy and in civic and community affairs. She was outside the home working in such matters and I think that Dick more and more wanted her to devote her time to church activities and her homemaking. This seemingly was the cause of the divorce and I know of no other reason.

Justine has custody of the children.

The children are being raised directly with contact with the church.

Information has been deleted since it would disclose the identity of the confidential source. [Section 552a (k) (5), Public Law 93-579]

Tina did have a serious tragedy in that her six or seven year old child died of cancer several years ago.

Since Tina went to Washington she has worked for Court and more recently with the Department of Labor.

I think I know Tina rather well socially as well as professionally. I think she would be an excellent overseas employee of the United States. Her success with Courtesy Associates was dependent entirely on her getting along with people acting as hostess to delegates. She is extremely outstanding in the area of social and human relationships. As far as the Peace Corps goes, Tina has the attributes of a genuine concern for the less fortunate people. I think that nearly all of the people attracted to our kind (CORO Foundation) of professional service motivations.

Tina has an attractive, polished, charming person with a good deal of courage. She must have a good deal of stamina. In her Court work, she had a good many occasions to travel [REDACTED]

I don't know too much about the present circumstances of the children and whether or not this would be a detriment to her in overseas travel or assignments. I do know that the children are very well mannered and well reared and I have heard nice things of them through others. Tina apparently has the problems of any divorced mother who finds it necessary to work for a living. I understand that she dates but is not seriously romantically involved with anyone.

I think her character, conduct, habits, morals, honesty and integrity are excellent. She is a very outstanding woman and was elected Woman of the Year by the American Association of University Women while during her residence there. She had conceived the program called "Key to Your City" which she carried off by herself. This was a program designed to attract all of the public officials of the city of Anaheim, Orange County and of the Los Angeles County area to make known to the public the services and facilities which were available to the public. The project attracted state-wide attention and was exceedingly well done. This was the basis for the Woman of the Year Award.

I would recommend Tina for the Peace Corps Staff without any reservations. We have had a number of our graduates in the public field. A number of these have been in the Peace Corps on the staff either previously or presently so serving. We carefully screen our people and still we have made some mistakes, on the whole we have succeeded in choosing quite outstanding people. We have had a number of returning Peace Corps volunteers to apply for this program and we have been asked for information about our screening projects due to our past record in this matter.

Tina has no health problems that I am aware of. I would have no doubt at all of her loyalty to the United States. Other than the Association of University Women and public service groups, I know of no groups or organizations to which she belongs.

Justine Hubbel Clapp Lower was one of our internees in the Public Affairs Internship during the period October 1951 to June 1952. Thereafter she worked in this office full time for at least three or four months and part-time thereafter until she and her husband, Dick, moved to Bakersfield, California.

In September 1953, Dick was accepted and began the Internship himself completing it in June 1954. Tina was back in this area during this period of time working with the CMA-CIO Union to help support them and also during this period helped out in our office. They then moved back to Bakersfield and she occasionally would help us on trips to this city or at other times from her home.

In 1957 we opened an office in Los Angeles, California and as Dick and Tina had moved there, we called on her to help us get the Los Angeles Office started and she worked off and on for us on a voluntary part-time basis until 1961 when she went to Washington, D. C.

Information has been deleted since it would disclose the identity of the confidential source. [Section 552a (k) (5), Public Law 93-579]

Tina has a good record of health. She has been through a [redacted] child. She was working quite hard and seemed to be just fine. Tina and Dick were divorced in the [redacted] area in 1951 and Tina went to Washington from there. They lost their youngest child from cancer at about the time they divorced. She has lots of strength and has been able to keep her family together quite nicely. She has custody of the children and does quite well. She has worked in Washington with Courtesy Associates and with the Department of Labor.

I have known Tina socially and through business. I consider her a superior person. I think the Peace Corps has considered that she does have young boys. The boys are maturing nicely and both are very fine young men. One of the boys is an honor life scout. I feel certain that Tina and the boys would be able to surmount any difficulty in an overseas assignment with credit to the United States.

I don't know the reason for Tina and Dick's divorce other than differences in personality. There was also a religious consideration. I am a friend of both [redacted] I know that the relations between Dick and Tina are pleasant primarily because [redacted] There is nothing about their trouble, separation and divorce which would be exploitable in a security position or nothing in a really derogatory sense against either.

I think Tina is a person of excellent character, habits, and integrity. She is stable, mature and a reliable person who has outstanding qualities of leadership and personality. She gets along well with everyone and has no prejudices. I consider her very adaptable and with the intelligence to do an excellent job for the Peace Corps. I believe her to be a loyal American citizen. I do not know her affiliations or close associates. I highly recommend her.

INVESTIGATOR'S NOTE: Case papers show residence in Bakersfield, California 1953 to 1954 and in San Francisco 1954 to 1955 with employment shown with Communications Workers of America from 1953 to 1954. Above testimony indicated that subject worked with the CWA during the period October 1953 to June 1954 while her husband was an intern at CORQ Foundation.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

I met Justine Lower in approximately [REDACTED] attending the Coro Foundation Course in public affairs. [REDACTED] she came to the [REDACTED]

FOR UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT USE ONLY

Los Angeles area. I had contact with her until approximately 1961 when she left the West Coast and went to Washington, D.C. She was married at that time to a man by the name of Richard Lower. Since they have divorced. My contact with her was as a member of the Coro program. She was doing some post graduate training program work. When the Coro Foundation opened their office in Los Angeles, California she helped us with the paper work. She was on a voluntary basis as she received no pay for this work. She worked approximately 16 hours a week or whenever we needed her. I believe she was actively involved for approximately one and one-half to two years. They were living in Orange County, somewhere near Anaheim. Prior to that time they lived somewhere in Central Los Angeles, but I do not recall the address. Tina, as she is better known, would ride with her husband from Orange County and assist us in our work. I don't recall any other employments she might have had.

Tina and Richard were very active people. I believe they were both going in different directions and that is why they were divorced. During my association with Tina I found her to be a very competent and hard working girl. She was conscientious toward her work and her family. I thought, at one time, that she was a little high strung, but this went along with the work she was doing. Her health, both mental as well as physical, has been excellent. She is a very emotionally mature and stable person. Tina would do pretty well overseas and I believe would be able to adjust and adapt herself to changing situations. She adapted herself to this divorce very well and I believe has been doing an excellent job in raising the children. When she moved to Washington she arranged well with the move and I don't think had any problems. This woman is completely free of any prejudices toward anyone. She tends to become impatient with individuals who are not doing the work expected of them. She believes they should live up to their capacity.

Her personal habits, character and morals are above reproach. She rates very high when it comes to honesty and trustworthiness. To my knowledge she has never been in any difficulty or trouble with law enforcement agencies or finances. She is very preceptive in her dealings with people and organizations. She was very active in the Orange County Community and I believe had an excellent reputation there. I have always had a high respect for Tina and I have not heard anyone ever say anything bad about her.

I am unaware of any organizations to which she belongs. I believe her to be a loyal American citizen and I recommend her for a position of trust with the Federal Government. I believe she would make an excellent representative of the United States where ever she might be.

[REDACTED]

I first met Tina Lower [REDACTED] working for the Coro Foundation in San Francisco, California. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] It was a totally informal acquaintanceship we had. They moved to Los Angeles in approximately 1956 or 1957. Tina assisted [REDACTED] in setting up the Los Angeles Branch of the Coro Foundation. She volunteered her time and effort in the office. She was also involved in the internship program in San Francisco in about 1952. I believe since 1953, she has been active with the foundation and possibly was on its payroll.

We do not have any records in this office because she was never salaried. I had some social contact with her husband, Richard, and also Tina. He is a lawyer and employed by the Humboldt Oil Company. They were divorced approximately three years ago. I do not know the reason why. I personally believe it is because of the temperance of the two individuals. She was a housewife while here. They were residing in Orange County and I believe it was in Anaheim. When Tina left the Los Angeles area she went to Washington, D.C. and was associated with the Courtesy Associates there. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I have seen her [REDACTED] when she has returned to the West Coast for visits. I understand she was a co-ordinator for them and arranged for some of the social gatherings there.

I have the greatest respect for Tina. She is the type of person who would be able to adjust and adapt herself quite readily where ever she might be. I believe she did this when she moved from Los Angeles to Washington. She had a lot on her mind because of the divorce and change. They have several children and I believe this would have added a little more hardship on her. She also left Anaheim after having been active in the community affairs.

Tina is a very ambitious person and has a lot of drive. She is a dynamic person. She has always seemed to gain the respect of those working with her. Tina's performance is best in personal contact with people. I believe she would be an excellent person for a trouble shooting thing. She is definitely not the eight to five routine type person. She is always looking for a challenge and accepts it quite well. She has never displayed any prejudices toward anyone because of race, religion, economic or education. She is always striving to get ahead. I have absolutely no reason to question her personal habits and morals. I have seen her take a drink, but never has she used intoxicants habitually or to excess. She enjoys a party and good company. She has been in good health during the time I have known her. She is a well-adjusted person and I believe she proved this during the period of time she was getting this divorce from her husband. She is the type of person who can be expected to get involved in things in the community. Her interest are very diversified and she is an intelligent person.

I do not know of any specific organization in which she was active. She is a loyal American citizen. I highly recommend her for a position of trust with the Federal Government. I believe she will do a good job where ever she goes and whatever she does.

My records do not go back any further than 1959. I do not recall the name Lower, but our complex is quite large. I do not know of anyone who might have lived in this area and would have known the Lowers.

INVESTIGATOR'S NOTE: The 1956 Telephone Directory lists a Richard D. Lower residing at 3065 Sussex Lane, Los Angeles, California. This residence is located one block North of the Wybernwood Apartments and is a part of the Wybernwood Apartment Complex. A check of the location, crisscross Directory and Telephone Directory failed to show anyone presently living in the area who were there at the time.

No record.

INVESTIGATOR'S NOTE: The Los Angeles Police Department and Los Angeles Sheriff's Office refuses to conduct record search.

GLENDAL, CALIFORNIA

I do not recall the name Lower. I resided [REDACTED] in Glendale for many years. I left there just recently and moved to my present address. I do not know of anyone who might have lived in the neighborhood years ago.

INVESTIGATOR'S NOTE: The 1955 FIK Directory for Glendale, California lists a Richard D. Lower residing at 2628 Chevy Chase Drive East. No listing of a wife for him or a Justine Lower listed. Two witnesses were contacted. One lived in the area at the time, but did not recall subject. One other person was not there at the time. A check of local reference material failed to show anyone presently living in the area who might have known about the residents at 2628 Chevy Chase Drive East.

I recall Mrs. Lower. She rented a house [REDACTED] located at 31946 Virginia Way in South Laguna, California. She was there from September 1960 until June 1961. I believe she had two children and was in the process of getting a divorce from her husband. She went to Washington, D.C. to check into a job there. I do not know whether she went into the Washington area when she left [REDACTED] or not.

The only reason she left was [REDACTED]. She had a mother located somewhere in the San Diego area. She might have moved there and spent a short time with the mother before she went to Washington. I recall [REDACTED]. She is a very nice and well bred lady. There was nothing wrong with her as far as I know. I do know the neighbors thought very highly of her [REDACTED]. I have absolutely no reason to question her personal habits, character or morals. She was very honest and trustworthy toward me. There was never any indication she used narcotics or alcohol. [REDACTED]. She appeared to be in good health. I base all of this

On my very slight contact with her.

I am not aware of any organizations of which she is a member. I believe her to be a loyal American citizen. She was quite active in the community of Anaheim, California. During the time she was getting her divorce she stayed close to home. I believe that is why she divorced him. I would recommend this woman for a position with the Federal Government. I believe she would make a good representative of the United States.

Dear Mrs. Hobson:

This is in reference to your Freedom of Information-Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request to the Civil Service Commission. Contained in their records were documents which originated with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). These documents were referred to this Bureau on November 10, 1976, with the request that the FBI determine their releasability.

An exceedingly heavy volume of FOIPA requests has been received these past few months. Additionally, court deadlines involving certain historical cases of considerable scope have been imposed upon the FBI. Despite successive expansions of our staff responsible for FOIPA matters, substantial delays in processing requests continue.

Since January 1, 1975, the FBI has received a total of 27,714 FOIPA requests. Of these, our present backlog is 7,978. In an effort to deal fairly with any request requiring the retrieval, processing and duplication of documents, each request is being handled in chronological order based on the date of receipt. Please be assured that your request is being handled as equitably as possible and that all documents which can be released will be made available at the earliest possible date.

Dear Mr. Hobson:

This is in response to Mrs. Hobson's Privacy Act inquiry received by this office August 17, 1976, in which she requested information contained in her investigative file. The Bureau of Personnel Investigations of the U.S. Civil Service Commission processes all requests in which an individual is seeking investigative file information from our system of records pertaining to herself or is seeking correction or amendment of such records under the Privacy Act of 1974, Public Law 93-579; and considers the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974 to be exclusively applicable to all such requests.

This is to advise you of our decision to furnish you a copy of the information which she requested with the exception of any material that is exempt from disclosure under the Privacy Act of 1974, particularly Section 552a (k) (5). re: Privacy Act request of Justine C. Hobson

Dear Mr. Hobson:

This refers to Mrs. Hobson's recent Privacy Act inquiry, requesting copies of all Civil Service Commission files pertaining to her.

This bureau, as the system manager of the Government-wide CSC/GOVT-3 General Personnel Records system, maintains civilian personnel records of former and current Federal employees. Records in this system are filed in the Official Personnel Folder (OPF), which is maintained on every Federal employee. Because Mrs. Hobson is a current Federal employee, her OPF is filed in the Personnel Office of the Federal Energy Administration, and arrangements for review of the folder can be made with her Personnel Chief, giving her name, address, and phone number.

The Commission maintains a total of thirteen different record systems, three of which pertain to Commission employees only. These systems are defined by, and subject to, the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-579). I am enclosing a list of these systems to assist Mrs. Hobson with record requests.

Because Mrs. Hobson seems particularly interested in investigative records, I am referring her letter, and a copy of this letter, to the Commission's Bureau of Personnel Investigations (BPI). That office will contact her directly concerning its findings.

If I can be of further assistance, please contact me.

Summary of Records Systems

The U. S. Civil Service Commission (CSC) maintains, or directs the maintenance of, thirteen different records systems covered by the Privacy Act of 1974. Individuals interested in determining which system of records may contain information about them may be helped by reviewing the following guides:

Current Federal Employees. Although each of the thirteen systems may contain information concerning current Federal employees, the "General Personnel Records" and the "Personnel Investigations Records" systems are the most common sources of personal information.

Former Federal Employees. In addition to the "Civil Service Retirement Records" system (civilian retirees), the "General Personnel Records" and "Personnel Investigations Records" systems may contain information pertaining to former Federal civilian employees of the Federal Government.

Applicants for Federal Employment. The "Personnel Investigations Records" and the "Recruiting, Examining, and Placement Records" systems may contain information about individuals who have filed an employment application with one of the Commission's area offices.

Government Contractor Employees. Individuals who have worked for a Government contractor that required them to have a security clearance may find information pertaining to them in the "Personnel Investigations Records" system.

The following list of records systems contains: 1) the system's name; 2) the title of the official(s) to contact; and 3) a summary of information which must be submitted in order to identify records as yours. Note: In the interest of brevity the list does not include three records systems which pertain only to Commission employees; these are the "Pay, Leave, and Travel Records," "Motor Vehicle Operator and Accident Report Records," and "Defense Mobilization Emergency Cadre Records" systems.

General Personnel Records. Contact: the Personnel Officer servicing your installation, if currently employed; the Director, Bureau of Manpower Information Systems, CSC, if a former Federal employee.

If a former employee, include: your full name, date of birth, Social Security Number, and Federal agency where last employed.

Personnel Investigations Records. Contact: the Director, Bureau of Personnel Investigations, CSC.

Include any available information regarding 1) the type of record involved, and 2) the category of information (Examples: current or former applicant for employment in X-Agency, current or former applicant for employment with X-International Organization, individual considered for access to classified information) under which you believe information about you may be found.

Civil Service Retirement Records. Contact: the Director, Bureau of Retirement, Insurance, and Occupational Health, CSC.

Include: your full name, and any former names under which employed; the date of your birth; your Social Security Number; the name and address of the Federal office in which you are/were, employed; and, if assigned, your annuity account number.

Appeals, Grievances, and Complaints Records. Contact: the Chairman, Appeals Review Board, CSC, if interest is in Appeals Review Board appeal and reopening Control Index Card file; the Director, Federal Employee Appeals Authority, CSC, if interest is in Part 772 appeal records; the Director, Bureau of Personnel Management Evaluation, CSC, if interest is in classification appeals to the Commission, performance rating appeals, and complaints records; the Personnel Officer servicing your installation, if interest is in agency adverse action appeals initiated before September 9, 1974, classification appeals in agencies, EEO complaint files, or grievance records.

Include: your full name and date of birth; the agency in which you are/were employed; the approximate date, and the kind of action taken by the agency.

Recruiting, Examining, and Placement Records. Contact: the Area Manager, CSC Area Office (to which you applied), if interest is that of an applicant for employment; the Personnel Officer of the specific agency to which application was made, if interest is that of a current Federal employee.

If an applicant, include: your full name, date of birth, Social Security Number, and, if known, your identification number; the approximate date of the record; the title of the examination or announcement with which concerned; and the geographic area in which consideration was requested. If a current Federal employee, include: your full name, date of birth, and Social Security Number; the vacancy announcement number, if known; and the title of the position for which applied.

Confidential Employment and Financial Interest Statements. Contact: the General Counsel, CSC, if interest is in agency heads, presidential appointees in the Executive Office of the President, Presidential appointed full-time members of committees or commissions, or Commissioners and employees of the Civil Service Commission; the General Counsel of the Department or Agency with which employed, if interest is in employees other than those just noted.

Include: your full name, your Department or Agency, and Department or Agency component.

Personnel Research Test Validation Records. Contact: the Director, Personnel Research and Development Center, CSC, or the Director of any Regional Office of the Commission.

There are no procedures for gaining access to information in this system; all material and information about individuals are exempt from most provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974.

Litigation and Political Activity (Hatch Act) Records. Contact: the General Counsel, CSC.

Include: your full name, the record in which interested, the civil action number, if any, and your State of residence at the time of the action.

Police Arrest 94 In Capitol Protest

By Paul N. Valentine and Abbott Combes
Washington Post Staff Writers

Ninety-four persons, many of them well known scholars, artists and entertainers, were arrested in the Capitol yesterday when they refused to leave in both symbolic and physical protest against the Indochina war.

Capitol police began escorting the demonstrators out of a hallway near an entrance to the House floor around

5 p.m. after the House had adjourned for the day and that portion of the Capitol was officially closed. They were charged with unlawful entry.

The arrests came at the end of a carefully orchestrated exercise in antiwar street theater designed to show that prominent, middle-aged artists and professionals — not just college students and street freaks — are now willing to be arrested to dramatize their discontent with the war.

Among those arrested were folksinger Judy Collins, baby doctor Benjamin Spock, MIT professor Noam Chomsky, actor Howard DaSilva, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lifton, Yale psychiatry professor and his writer wife, painter Larry Rivers, antiwar activist Marcus Raskin, actress Barbara Harris, poet Kenneth Koch, fashion photographer Richard Avedon, columnist Judith Worst, and columnist Gary Wills.

Others arrested include Leslie Dunbar, president of the Field Foundation; David Amram, composer; Fehicia Bernstein, actress and wife of conductor Leonard Bernstein; John Steinbeck IV; Dr. George Wald, winner of a Nobel Prize in biochemistry; Joseph Papp, actor-producer; Tina Turner, wife of Washington activist Julius Hobson; Carl Hiaasen, former speechwriter for Barry Goldwater and Francine Gray, author.

Most of the protesters were being held on $500 bond last night. All 94 are to be arraigned today in Superior Court.

The action marked the second time in eight days that mass arrests for antiwar protests were made in the Capitol. Last Tuesday, 133 persons organized by Clergy and Laity Concerned About Vietnam, were arrested in the Rotunda when they refused to leave.

Yesterday's protesters, organized by an ad hoc group called Redress, marched 150 strong to the Capitol at 2 p.m. and presented a petition to House Speaker Carl Albert (D-Okla.), asking the House to end the war by immediately cutting off military and economic appropriations to Indochina.

Albert spoke with the group briefly in the crowded corridor near the House floor entrance. He accepted the petition and said it would be referred to an "appropriate committee right away."

The group then waited in the corridor until 5 p.m., when Capitol Police Chief James M. Powell ordered them to leave. Ninety-four decided to remain. The others left then or had left earlier.

The group first assembled on the Capitol grounds at 1 p.m. and read its petition at a press conference.

"We petition the Congress to exercise its constitutional authority of control over the armed forces by voting an immediate cessation of all air, ground and naval operations in Indochina," it said.

The group, led by Miss Collins and Lifton carrying a giant scroll with the petition inscribed on it, then marched slowly and silently to the east steps of the House where they were greeted by eight members of Congress.

"Your presence here today is an act of courage," said Rep. Donald W. Riegle (R-Mich.). "I applaud you, I join you," shouted Rep. Ronald V. Dellums (D-Calif.).

The group then filed into the Capitol building to an entrance hall to the House floor. Albert, who had agreed by prearrangement to meet the group, came into the hall.

WASH. POST

25 May 72

"Thank you very much. It's nice to see you" he told the group. When he said the petition would be sent to committee, Lifton asked that the House meet in emergency session immediately instead. Albert said only that the petition would reach committee "right away." He then returned to the House floor.

Twice during the afternoon, Rep. Bella Abzug (D-N.Y.) asked the House to recess for 15 minutes so that a member of the protest group could enter the floor and read the petition. She was overruled by Albert.

When the arrests began at 5 p.m., Rep. Wayne L. Hays (D-Ohio), chairman of the House Administration Committee, looked at the protesters standing and sitting in the crowded hallway and said to Chief Powell: "The House is adjourned and I want them all the hell out of here . . . I think you ought to get these . . . people out of here."

Powell continued directing the one-by-one arrests. Women were taken first, then the men.

Yesterday's action was organized last week by a number of activists including Fred Branfman. He is director of Project Air War, a military research group here that has been documenting what it describes as the social, agricultural and ecological destruction of Indochina by American bombers and the conversion of the war from a ground to air battle.

Preparations for the action—publicity, printing, bail money and substantial long distance telephone costs—were financed chiefly by the participants themselves.

Each person invited was asked to donate $100, organizers said. Many gave that amount, and some gave $200, organizers said.

Branfman said he and other staff workers made long distance calls throughout the country to invite the participants. Some were unable to come because of the short notice, he said.

The bulk of the group met Tuesday night and again early Wednesday to discuss tactics and other details of the Capitol scenario.

Many indicated they did not wish to commit civil disobedience and risk arrest for both practical and philosophical reasons. Others argued for arrest.

"The news media has made it look like the only people who ever get arrested in the antiwar movement are psychopaths, Communists and freak-out artists," said composer and musician (David Amram) 41. "This is our chance to show that there are responsible people in this country concerned enough about the war to get arrested, too."

Powell continued directing the one-by-one arrests. Women were taken first, then the men.

Yesterday's action was organized last week by a number of activists including Fred Branfman. He is director of Project Air War, a military research group here that has been documenting what it describes as the social, agricultural and ecological destruction of Indochina by American bombers and the conversion of the war from a ground to air battle.

Preparations for the action—publicity, printing, bail money and substantial long distance telephone costs—were financed chiefly by the participants themselves.

Each person invited was asked to donate $100, organizers said. Many gave that amount, and some gave $200, organizers said.

Branfman said he and other staff workers made long distance calls throughout the country to invite the participants. Some were unable to come because of the short notice, he said.

The bulk of the group met Tuesday night and again early Wednesday to discuss tactics and other details of the Capitol scenario.

Many indicated they did not wish to commit civil disobedience and risk arrest for both practical and philosophical reasons. Others argued for arrest.

"The news media has made it look like the only people who ever get arrested in the antiwar movement are psychopaths, Communists and freak-out artists," said composer and musician (David Amram) 41. "This is our chance to show that there are responsible people in this country concerned enough about the war to get arrested, too."

Police Arrest 94 In Capitol Protest

By Paul N. Valentine and Abbott Combes

Washington Post Staff Writers

Ninety-four persons, many of them well known scholars, artists and entertainers, were arrested in the Capitol yesterday when they refused to leave in both symbolic and physical protest against the Indochina war.

Capitol police began escorting the demonstrators out of a hallway near an entrance to the House floor around

5 p.m. after the House had adjourned for the day and that portion of the Capitol was officially closed. They were charged with unlawful entry.

The arrests came at the end of a carefully orchestrated exercise in antiwar street theater designed to show that prominent, middle-aged artists and professionals — not just college students and street freaks — are now willing to be arrested to dramatize their discontent with the war.

Among those arrested were folksinger Judy Collins, baby doctor Benjamin Spock, MIT professor Noam Chomsky, actor Howard DaSilva, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lifton, Yale psychiatry professor and his writer wife, painter Larry Rivers, antiwar activist Marcus Raskin, actress Barbara Harris, poet Kenneth Koch, fashion photographer Richard Avedon, columnist Judith Morst, and columnist Gary Wills.

Others arrested include Leslie Dunbar, president of the Field Foundation; David Aram, composer; Fencia Bernstein, actress and wife of conductor Leonard Bernstein; John Steinbeck IV; Dr. George Wald, winner of a Nobel Prize in biochemistry; Joseph Papp, actor-producer; Tina Turner, wife of Washington actor Julius Hobson; Carl Hesse, former speechwriter for Barry Goldwater and Francine Gray, author.

Most of the protesters were being held on $500 bond last night. All 94 are to be arraigned today in Superior Court.

The action marked the second time in eight days that mass arrests for antiwar protests were made in the Capitol. Last Tuesday, 133 persons organized by Clergy and Laity Concerned About Vietnam, were arrested in the Rotunda when they refused to leave.

Yesterday's protesters, organized by an ad hoc group called Redress, marched 150 strong to the Capitol at 2 p.m. and presented a petition to House Speaker Carl Albert (D-Okla.), asking the House to end the war by immediately cutting off military and economic appropriations to Indochina.

Albert spoke with the group briefly in the crowded corridor near the House floor entrance. He accepted the petition and said it would be referred to an "appropriate committee right away."

The group then waited in the corridor until 5 p.m., when Capitol Police Chief James M. Powell ordered them to leave. Ninety-four decided to remain. The others left then or had left earlier.

The group first assembled on the Capitol grounds at 1 p.m. and read its petition at a press conference.

"We petition the Congress to exercise its constitutional authority of control over the armed forces by voting an immediate cessation of all air, ground and naval operations in Indochina," it said.

The group, led by Miss Collins and Lifton carrying a giant scroll with the petition inscribed on it, then marched slowly and silently to the east steps of the House where they were greeted by eight members of Congress.

"Your presence here today is an act of courage," said Rep. Donald W. Riegle (R-Mich.). "I applaud you, I join you," shouted Rep. Ronald V. Dellums (D-Calif.).

The group then filed into the Capitol building to an entrance hall to the House floor. Albert, who had agreed by prearrangement to meet the group, came into the hall.

"Thank you very much. It's nice to see you" he told the group. When he said the petition would be sent to committee, Lifton asked that the House meet in emergency session immediately instead. Albert said only that the petition would reach committee "right away." He then returned to the House floor.

Twice during the afternoon, Rep. Bella Abzug (D-N.Y.) asked the House to recess for 15 minutes so that a member of the protest group could enter the floor and read the petition. She was overruled by Albert.

When the arrests began at 5 p.m., Rep. Wayne L. Hays (D-Ohio), chairman of the House Administration Committee, looked at the protesters standing and sitting in the crowded hallway and said to Chief Powell: "The House is adjourned and I want them all the hell out of here . . . I think you ought to get these . . . people out of here."

Powell continued directing the one-by-one arrests. Women were taken first, then the men.
